THE IRISH PRINCE

Ach, guess ye what's the newest? Rejoice me bhoys wid me, An Irish Prince will visit us Receptions there will be; Ara musha we will have a time The like was niver known Since Brian Baru of owld stepped down From off the Irish throne

Our Governor and his aide-de-camp, All dressed in fine green clothes, Will meet this Prince mid throngs of

As from the ship he goes-Up thro the town the band will lead Mac-Berger in the front, And every half a block or so We'll have a Hoola stunt.

All nations will be reprisinted (That's all the nations here) And Hatter from Chicago Will surely too appear. The "Nater man" will also come In all his ghoulish glory, "Mauna Loa" with her whiskers off And little Jimme Story.

Then to the Palace we will go (Good citizens do not frown) Sure for holy royalty, ye's know, We turn things unside down. In royal robes of former king We'll deck this new prince out And put upon his head a crown If as to crown there's any doubt.

Our prince's a man of glorious mein A warrior bowld an' true, His hair is red and limbs are stout He stands up six foot two.

Ye's talk about yer Japan prince, Yer Chinks an' Turks an' al, Where?-I would ask-would any be Nixt sons of Tara's Hail. He'd take the lot into the ring Belt hell out o' their hides,

An' if they dared then ope their mouths He'd break their nicks besides. He'd put thim thro their facings, too, Would charge them income Tax, Would put the figure down himself,

An' dare thim questions axe. So we will have some high owld jinks, We'll ait and dhrink most hearty. Hibernia's bhoys will give the feast With Clem Quinn and McCarthy.

Attorney Quinn will make the speech He's a darlint at oration, McCarthy will supply the dhrink

For gentle inbibation McBride from out owld county Down O'Hooligan from swate Kildare, O'Rafferty, McKee and Brown

An' Tommie Nolan will be there. Thousands more from the owld art Will homage pay to Ireland's prince, Kanaka and American

Will gladly stand up him ferninst. Rejoice with me. Rejoice again, I say, Hail this Prace with open arms, Let loose yer wealth; spend it free For Erin's son of many charms. But whisper! Hush! Keep it dark! This Irish Prince will go his way. But when the Jap comes back again With strength, He'll come to stay.
